Celebrating 25 Years of Publishing Young Authors and Artists!

The 25th annual Art of Writing Young Authors and Artists Conference celebrates the talents of young writers and artists, while uniting the surrounding school districts in a collaborative academic pursuit.

- WHO: Authors in grade 3 – 12 and artists in grade 6 – 12 enrolled in public, private, charter or home schools in Wisconsin.
- WHAT: Led by Magee Elementary teacher John Hallagan and co-sponsored by the Kettle Moraine School District and the Milwaukee Art Museum, this regional one-day young authors and artists conference takes place annually at the Milwaukee Art Museum during the fall semester. The Art of Writing conference promotes student enthusiasm and competence in written and visual expression using the Museum's collection as inspiration. The purpose of the conference is to engage students in the creative process while improving their abilities in writing, drawing, listening and speaking. We recognize the accomplishments of the writers and artists with the publication of this year's edition of the Art of Writing book containing their stories and sketches.
- WHEN: Tuesday, November 27, 2012
- WHERE: Milwaukee Art Museum
700 N. Art Museum Drive Milwaukee, WI 53202
- ENROLL: Registration forms and fees are due by Friday, November 9, 2012. The student participation fee of $75 includes student's Museum admission, morning snack and pizza luncheon, conference materials, publishing costs and one copy of this year's Art of Writing book for each participating student and their school. (May, 2013)
