

My Haiku

Combine your lines to complete your haiku:

Explore the galleries and keep an eye out for works on paper. These artworks change often to protect them from light. Write five syllables about a work that inspires you:

(Hint! The design galleries or S202 are great places to look!)

CUT HERE!

Head to the Haitian gallery on the mezzanine. The Museum's new videos, audio guide, and exploration cards invite you to see the collection through new eyes. Write a seven-syllable description about what you learned:

Visit the refreshed Bradley Collection of Modern Art on Level 2 (opening March 15). Explore the newly reimagined galleries and find a work that inspires you. Capture what stands out in five syllables: